A NEW POWDER GIVEN A TEST.

There is No Smoke and No Noxious Gases.

RESULTS WERE SATISFACTORY

A Photograph was Taken Within Fifteen Minutes in a Room Where Two Shots Had Been Fired—An Interview With the Inventor.

From present indications a new era in the use of powder in the coal mines of the Massillon district is about to be opened to the miners. Smokeless powder may take the place of black powder in blasting and the life of a miner, while inside a mine, made at least one hundred per cent better. F. H. Briggs, of Cleveland, inventor of the Herschelite smokeless powder, and Taylor Roy, his expert detonator, have been in the Massillon district the past few days demonstrating the Herschelite smokeless powder for blasting in mines.

A demonstration of the work of the powder was given in the mines of the Massillon Coal Mining Company. The officers were well pleased with what they witnessed, and the results were satisfactory in every particular. It is said that the powder competes in price with black powder and leaves no fumes of noxious gas and no smoke. Tests have proved that men can enter a working place immediately after firing a shot or even several shots in the same place without feeling any ill effects either from smoke or gases. Should this powder come into general use in the district, it would, no doubt, be of great advantage to those who earn a livelhood by working under ground.

During one test made in a mine Thursday a photograph of a group of persons was taken within fifteen minutes after two shots had been fired. One of these shots was such that it black powder had been used the room would have been filled with smoke for at least four hours. A half pound of the smokeless powder was used to make the flash light with which to take the photograph.

Mr. Briggs has not yet established a plant permanently but is having powder made. He has been working out the details of his new powder several months. Regarding his work along this line Mr. Briggs said:

"I discovered the new combination about a year and a half ago, but it is only within the last nine months that I have perfected the powder. Now I have an explosive agent that is entirely distinct from the smokeless powder commonly known and now on the market.

"My powder was invented primarily for the purpose of blasting in mines. Now you are aware that after the ordinary bank powder is used the smoke and noxious gases arising make it imperative that no miner enter his room for a considerable period after the charge is set off. It is the practice to discharge the shots at night, giving the succeeding hours until morning over to idleness while the smoke, gases and fumes accruing from the charges set off are clearing out of the rooms.

"For my invention I claim the following: It is smokeless and therefore the smoke following the use of black and to a lesser extent the ordinary smokelesss powder, is done away with; no noxious gases arise from my powder; and there are no fumes resulting from the combustion; my powder will explode when tamped or confined into a compact mass; (by compact I mean put up in a space requiring some effort to confine the powder within the limits decided upon.) When exposed to the air in a loose mass the charge will not explode with the fatal effect frequently following the assembling together of a large quantity of explosives.

"By comparison my powder will generate, mass for mass, three and one-third times as much energy as the ordinary smokeless powder.

"In price I can compete with the black powders now on the market."

FEED THE BIRDS.

A Farmer Discusses an Interesting Subject.

"What would Lucas county be without birds?" said M. Burnor, who resides near the city, in referring to the value of these little feathered friends of the farmer, reports the Toledo Blade.

"The value of these little birds on the farm is well known to most of our progressive agriculturists, as is evidenced by the stringent laws passed by the state legislatures for their protection. While the law has thrown sufficient protection around the little songsters and the game wardens prosecute vigorously any cases which come to their knowledge, it is up to the farmer to assist in the preservation of the small birds.

To aid in this project my advice is that farmers make a practice of allowing one or two shocks of corn to stand in a field upon which the birds and small animals may feed, if necessary. There are times in the winter when all accessible sources of food supply for birds and animals are frozen up and then the corn shocks would be the means of preventing the birds, squirrels and other small animals from starvation. One or two shocks of corn are not much of an item and the benefit derived in keeping the birds alive would more than compensate the mere pecuniary loss. Aside from any material benefit resulting, a feeling of pity will prompt the practice."

FIGHTING AT ANNAPOLIS.

President Says Brutal Bouts Must Stop.

Washington, Nov. 11.—President Roosevelt will direct a most searching inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death of Midshipman Branch, who died as the result of a twenty-two round fight with Midshipman Meriwether at the naval academy. This was decided on after a conference between the President and Colonel James R. Branch and Mrs. Branch, the father and mother of the young man who was killed and who are close friends of the President.

Colonel Branch also had a conference with Secretary Bonaparte, who will take drastic measures to put a stop to prize fighting at the academy. Colonel Branch and his wife went to Annapolis immediately after they learned of the condition of their son and remained until he died. Colonel Branch declared that Meriwether is a much taller and larger man than his son and that the fight was a brutal one. He has demanded that a complete investigation of the case be made so that other unfortunate occurrences of this character cannot happen.

Secretary Bonaparte has received a preliminary report from Admiral Sands, superintendent of the academy, and he is now waiting for the report of surgeons who examined the body of the dead midshipman. Secretary Bonaparte will not make this report public until he has further details and when these are received he will decide what action is necessary. There will be four or five court martials and at least five cadets are in serious danger of being expelled from the academy as the result of the prize fight.

It is certain that drastic action will be taken by the department. It will be aimed more at the system which obtains at the academy in connection with these "affairs of honor" than against the individuals who were connected with the Branch-Meriwether fight.

One of the most serious aspects of the case from the standpoint of the department is the matter of discipline in the academy and how far the midshipmen can go in making mental reservations when taking oaths to obey the rules of the institution. When the middies enter the academy they take oaths to obey all the rules of the institution, but the Branch-Meriwether fight has developed that they make mental reservations and that a code of honor prevails among the midshipmen not countenanced by the rules of the academy.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Bonaparte and Admiral Sands have decided that but one code of rules shall obtain in the academy and that shall be the regular rules adopted by the academy board and that those who obey any other rules or assist in maintaining another code shall be punished severely.

ADAMS—WAGNER.

A Wedding at Navarre at 8:30 Friday Morning.

Navarre, O., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Miss Clara Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Adams, and Mr. Edward Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wagner, of Navarre, were married at St. Clement's church at 8:30 Friday morning, the Rev. J. B. Alten officiating. The ceremony was followed by a wedding dinner and supper, at which fifty guests were present. The bridesmaid was Miss Florence Warth, of Massillon, the best man Earl Wernet, of Cleveland. The bride was gowned in white. Her veil was caught with white roses and she carried a white prayer book and rosary. The bridesmaid also wore white. The house was artistically decorated. The double parlors were filled with white and yellow chrysanthemums. Pink chrysanthemums decorated the dining room.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warth, Thomas Volkmor, Miss Edith Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Converse, Mr. and Mrs. B. Huwig, Mr. and Mrs. John Huwig, Mrs. Justina Shuriemer, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lomady and Peter Huwig, of Massillon; Mrs. Fiesler and Miss Joyce Souers, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Frank Shrader, of Canton.

TWO NEW ROOMS READY NEXT TERM

State Street School Addition Nearly Finished.

OTHER ROOMS BADLY CROWDED

The Hole in the Franklin Building Yard Has Been Filled to a Level With East Street—North Street Building Sewer Not Commenced.

The board of education hopes to have the State street school addition ready for use at the opening of the term after the holidays. The building itself will be completed in about two weeks and the remainder of the present year will be required to furnish the two new rooms. This information was given out by the board at a meeting Friday evening, which was attended by President Stoner, Clerk Fox, Mr. Albright and Mrs. Shoemaker. Superintendent Cronebaugh was present at the meeting.

The addition will contain two rooms, each of which will accommodate fifty students. The latest make of seats will be used and the blackboards will be the best to be secured. The additional room is badly needed by the board as several of the rooms in the other buildings are already crowded. Extra chairs and benches are in use in some of the rooms. The additional rooms will be paid for out of a fund obtained by the board from a bond issue, approved by the people.

The board paid Henry Weible $160 for hauling dirt from Chester street to a low place in the grounds west of the Franklin building. About fifteen hundred loads were hauled and the hollow part of the yard was raised to a level with the street in places and above the street in other places. The "pond" is a thing of the past now in the Franklin building grounds. The sewer to the Franklin building has been connected up and the board paid its share of the sum for doing this work. The city laid a sewer in Chester street a few weeks ago and connections were made with this from the school building.

As yet the sewer to the North street building, which was authorized several wekes ago, has not been commenced. One contractor refused to do the work, after having been given the contract, because of the low estimate. Another contractor has taken the work and says he will commence to excavate for the sewer next week.

The supply committee reported that it had investigated the matter of purchasing flags for all school buildings and would order a number during the coming week. It is the intention of the board to keep a flag flying above each school building in the city during the entire year. This is required by law. The board has not been doing it because of the small amount of funds for this purpose. A few weeks ago a fraternal order in the city took up the matter and threatened to see that the law was enforced. The board had already made an investigation of the matter and was about to order flags when the communication was sent in. A few of the flag poles will be repaired next week and in a short time flags will be flying from the tops of all buildings. The flags will not be taken down after school hours and will remain on the poles Saturdays and Sundays.

Bills for several pieces of work which were done in the summer were ordered paid. The board expended several thousands of dollars during the summer months in repair work and fitting up the grounds about the several buildings. The work done last summer was the first done on a large scale for five years. Up to this time the board has not had sufficient funds to properly care for the buildings.

Several matters were discussed informally and the board adjourned to meet in two weeks.

NEW TROLLEY LINE.

Canton - Youngstown Railway Project.

Ravenna, Nov. 11.—E. Monnett, of Canton, while in Ravenna this week, said that the projected Canton-Youngstown line will be built, and that its course through Suffield, Portage county, will divide the big Fritch swamp for a distance of over one thousand feet.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

A WELL KNOWN IRON WORKER.

Death of O. P. Bush at Denver, Col.

Canton, Nov. 11.—(Special.)—News of the death of P. P. Bush, a former resident of Canton, was received from Denver, Col., Saturday morning. He was 70 years of age and was well known to the iron workers of Massillon and Alliance, having started the Novelty iron works here a number of years ago. He was a prominent Mason.

The manager of the Canton-Akron Street Railway Company has received word from New Philadelphia that County Commissioner Louis T. Kinsey has commenced a damage suit for $10,000 against the Tuscarawas Traction Company because one of its employes ejected him from a car a few weeks ago when he refused to pay an increased fare to the conductor. The commissioner is of the belief that the company wanted to insult and humiliate him before the public and ordered that he be ejected. This man had refused the annual pass proffered him.

The case of Onio vs. Edward Mesnar, who is charged with assault and battery upon James C. Deidrich, manager of the Morning News, will be heard in common pleas court Monday. The case is liable to attract considerable attention. Deidrich was unable to be out of his home for several days after the alleged assault took place. Mesnar was a former employe.

GAVE JURORS A WALK.

Findlay Judge's Novel Way of Forcing a Decision.

Findlay, O., Nov. 11.—Because a jury couldn't agree after being several hours out, Judge William F. Duncan yesterday took the members of the jury and walked them for several miles about the city and took them through several buildings, ending up with a complete inspection of the Y. M. C. A.

The case was that of Alonzo Orem against William Dewell et al, and involved the interpretation of a contract. Plaintiff claimed $150 expenses in going to Michigan to sell a stallion. Defendants claimed they were not to pay expenses. After being out several hours, Judge Duncan instructed the jury to disregard his former instructions and bring in any verdict they pleased. If not satisfctory to both parties he reserved the right to set it aside.

After the walk in the open air, the jury brought in a verdict for $75 in favor of the plaintiff. The court seemed to think this all right as he did not set it aside.

EXTRA SESSION CALLED.

Harrisburg, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—Governor Pennypacker has called an extra session of the legislature for January 19.

FOUR CAMPERS WERE ARRESTED

Will Have a Hearing Tonight Before the Mayor.

THEY ARE CHARGED WITH THEFT

Many Articles Have Been Recovered from a Camp Along the Canal Near Warmington—Warning from Chief Ertle

James Weeden, who is known in some parts of the city and who is said to have worked for David Miller until recently, was arrested near Warmington by Chief of Police Ertle Friday evening and charged with theft. Three boys about seventeen years of age were arrested at the same time and charged with being companions of Weeden. Chief Ertle was accompanied by a man in the employ of the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad Company and working in the gravel pit at Warmington.

Reports have reached Chief Ertle since last Monday that thefts had been made in several sections of the city, principally on the south side. Among the things stolen were supplies from H. H. Parnacott's stock room at the Athletic park, wearing apparel of workingmen out of cars along the Wheeling & Lake Erie tracks near Warmington, and other articles. When Chief Ertle took an inventory of the assets of the camp he found horse blankets, rubber boots, cushions used on the seats of the grandstand at the park, overalls and jackets, such as are worn by railroad men, and other small articles.

Chief Ertle and his companion found the camp located along the canal in a woods nearly due west from the ball park. The camp was concealed by two hills and was located in a most advantageous place to defy detection. A tent was used for protection from inclement weather. One of the boys said that he owned the tent and that the boys had been enticed to the spot and induced to join in the thefts, the plea of Weeden being that he was a detective and was after details of some big sensation. Chief Ertle brought the men to the city and lodged all in jail, where they will remain until Saturday evening, when they will appear before Mayor Bell.

When Chief Ertle detected the camp, he managed to reach the entrance without being seen and suddenly opening the tent found Weeden alone. Weeden saw it was useless to offer resistance. Chief Ertle was informed that the boys had gone down the canal for drinking water. He made Weeden remain quiet and the two stayed in the tent until the boys' return. They were soon seen coming across the canal in a boat. When at the entrance of the tent the boys were placed under arrest. The boys are young for this kind of business and are sons of parents living in the city. For this reason Chief Ertle did not give out their names. All will appear before Mayor Bell this evening.

Weeden had but very little to say to Chief Ertle about the affair. Local liverymen have identified some of the horse blankets and other material has been identified as belonging to the park association and to Mr. Parnacott. From what could be gleaned from the boys, their first intention was to go camping along the canal. They fell in with Weeden and were led into doing things of which they had no intention when pitching their tent along the waterway.

Chief Ertle has received a letter from Akron and another from Cuyahoga Falls, each written by women, saying that some time ago agents for a picture house were in those places taking money for pictures to be delivered within a few weeks. The women write that it is thought the agents have come to Massillon. Chief Ertle said Saturday that he desired the citizens of Massillon to be on their guard in this particular. One woman wrote that she had paid $21.60 in September and was to have her picture delivered in October. As yet, she writes, she has not received it. Chief Ertle does not want Massillon people to be taken in by any fake scheme and then come to him in after months to have him endeavor to recover something which would be next to impossible.

Mayor Bell left Massillon Saturday morning for Canton in order to learn about the possibility of his election as representative. The official count is being made of the county returns and the small margin between his vote and that for Representative Welker makes the election or defeat of either uncertain until the official count has been completed. The general assembly will be so close politically that each party is desirous of being certain that no mistakes have been made in certifying the election of a single member. The last reports up to Saturday morning showed that Representative Welker was a few votes ahead. The official count will not be completed until Monday or Tuesday.

Four persons, charged with being drunk, spent Friday night in jail but were released Saturday morning after having made arrangements for their appearance in court when wanted.

WHAT OFFICIAL FIGURES SHOW.

Republicans Elect All Minor State Officers.

CHAIRMAN DICK SAYS NOTHING.

Chairman Garber Declares the Whole Democratic Ticket Elected With the Legislature—Announced that Democrats Elected 59 Members of the House—Republicans 58.

Columbus, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—Official figures received by the Dispatch from seventy-three counties in the state show that minor candidates on the Republican state ticket have been elected. The counties yet to report show a net unofficial plurality of seven hundred for Herrick and therefore, unless some unexpected change occurs in these counties, the Republican candidates, except Governor Herrick, are elected. Senator Dick today continues to refuse to give out figures and Chairman Garber declares the whole Democratic ticket is elected, with the legislature.

It was announced today at Democratic state headquarters that the Democrats had elected fifty-nine members of the House and the Republicans fifty-eight, with a contest on three representatives in Harding, Paulding and Stark counties, where face returns show Republican victories by 103 and 5 votes respectively.

The Dispatch's official figures from seventy-seven counties, including Hamilton and Cuyahoga counties, show all minor Republican candidates on the state ticket elected. Harris, lieutenant governor, has the lowest plurality, 9,339. Kirtley, for the board of public works, the highest, 19,370.

FINED $200.

Justice of the Peace Francis Sentenced in Cleveland.

Cleveland, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—Justice of the Peace William Francis, convicted in police court of collecting and retaining illegal fees while in office, was today sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and costs and spend twenty days in the workhouse. The court also declared him ineligible to hold office for seven years and his office was declared vacant.

PRISONERS REVOLTED.

More Revolutionary Proceedings at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—The prisoners in the jail at Kishineff, Bessarabia, revolted in a body last night and demanded their freedom. On being refused they set fire to the jail. Troops were hurried to the scene and fired a volley into the mutneers, of whom twenty-two were killed and many wounded.

CLASSED AS WHISKY.

After Jan. 1 All Malt Whisky Will be Sold as Such.

Columbus, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—Horace Ankeney, state dairy and food commissioner, announces that after January 1 next, certain malt whiskies named by him will be classed as whisky, subjecting persons who sell them to the Dow tax.

CORONER'S VERDICT.

Pierson Met Death While Tie to Track.

Mt. Vernon, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press)—Coroner Scarborough finds that Student Pierson met death tied to the track on the railroad bridge where the train ran over him. He cannot determine who placed him on the track.

Thanksgiving and Christmas are close upon us and Massillon merchants are not forgetting it. The Independent's advertising columns from day to day are a fairly good indication of the way in which the material necessities of the various seasons are being recognized.

The Empire state is setting a good example to the rest of the country. On Tuesday the people of New York authorized the appropriation of $50,000,000 for good roads. Experts figure that from $25,000,000 to $40,000,000 will be saved in the cost of transportation the first year after the work is one.

News of doubtful cheer comes from Utah. Senator Reed Smoot may be expelled from the Mormon church because of his recent activity in the recent election which brought about Republican defeat. We want to put Mr. Smoot out of the Senate as soon as possible and our best grounds for such action lie in the fact that he is a Mormon.

A report issued by the United States geological survey shows that the production of petroleum last year was greater than that of any previous year. The total output of crude petroleum in the United States in 1904 was 117,063,421 barrels. The total value of all the petroleum marketed in the United States in 1904 was 101,170,466. The gain over the production of 1903 was 16,602,084 barrels in quantity and $6,476,416 in value. For the first time in the history of the petroleum industry the quantity of oil produced west of the Mississippi river was greater than that produced east of that river. New pools were discovered during 1904 in Texas, California, Kansas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma, and many extensions were made to the old fields. Another notable fact revealed in this last petroleum report is that the automobile would seem to have set the pace for the rise in the demand for refined petroleum. According to the report, demand was made in 1904 especially for the lighter grades used in internal combustion engines of motors.

The election being over we can now take up those questions and problems of nature and humanity which have no bearing upon the political complexion of state legislatures or the pluralities of victorious candidates. For instance: In what posture, asks a recent popular science contribution, does a bear sleep? To which replies Collier's Weekly: "We know not. Nay, as to the fish, the monkey, and the elephant our ignorance is equally complete. Can any of you answer? Of course, you know that most birds sleep on one leg, but what about mackerel and the fox? Snakes and turtles sleep with their mouths open, and whales on the surface of the sea. Rats roll up in a ball. The orang-outang takes crouching naps, but at night sleeps more earnestly on its back. This is an age of popular information about science, yet most of these facts are unknown to nearly all of us; for ignorance about the world it lives in is the great predominant fact in every creature's life. Even the foremost man of science knows nothing of the sleep of mollusks, radiates and worms. Also, the nature of sleep is connected with some of the most wonderful vistas that have opened lately to the human mind, as in hypnotism, multiform personality and the relation of consciousness to memory and suggestion. Knowledge never made mystery less, and never will, for nothing could be more mysterious than the fact of life itelf."

OBITUARY.

ANDREW GRIM.

Andrew Grim was born in Marlboro township, Stark county, O., August 10, 1853, and was the son of Andrew and Mary Staufer Grim. He was reared to honorable and efficient manhood in the vicinity of St. Peter's church, in which he was baptized in infancy. He united with the United Brethren church, in which he was faithful unto death. He was united in marriage to Miss Ageline Lower, of the same locality, May 28, 1874. They were blessed with three children, Amanda Eltie Shoemaker, Laura May Bowen and Howard C. Grim, Mrs. Bower having preceded her father to the eternal rest. The immediate bereaved are his wife, one son; one daughter, six grandchildren, one brother and three sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Grim spent most of their united life on the farm which they purchased from Mrs. Grim's father. They moved to Louisville in the spring of 1894 A year ago he built a mansion in South Chapel street for the convenience and pleasure of himself and family, which he was only privileged to enjoy for a brief season. His family shares its abundant hospitality, also the glorious hope that he now enjoys the mansions of glory. He died November 4, after a very brief illness, aged 52 years. His funeral, held from his residence, Tuesday, was largely attended, in a marked degree showing the esteem in which he was held. The services were conducted at the United Brethren church, the Rev. V. L. Frye officiating, assisted by the Rev. G. F. Chenot, the texts being "Be ye therefore ready, for at such an hour as ye think not the Son of Man cometh," and "For lo, I am with you always; even to the end of the world." His body was laid to rest in the union cemetery, to sleep the blessed sleep. Peace to his ashes.

Weak, Nervous, Worn Out Women

Bloodless, Irritable, Despondent Women Subject to All Sorts and Varieties of Nervous Troubles. Find a Positive Cure in

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

The world is full of women whose daily life is one long struggle against diseases peculiar to their sex—whose days and nights are full of quiet, patient suffering. The head the seat of pain and pressure—the result of nerve depression and physical weakness brought on by uterine or ovarian trouble—the nerves on edge—inclined to laugh or cry at anything—an ever present dragging in the back, hips and limbs—a feeling of utter weariness—lassitude and despondency. To these people Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are of incomparable value, having as they do the power to rebuild, to reinvigorate and resupply every organ, every nerve, every muscle with the lost energy, and to insure a complete return to health, strength and vigor again.

Mrs. John Bailey, of Jackson St., Penn Yan, N. Y., says:

"I was told that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills were a great nerve medicine, and as I needed one badly, I got a box. My nerves were very weak—I lacked ambition and strength and my heart action was very weak. I used the Pills as directed and they made my nerves quiet and steady—the heart action strong and regular and the appetite good, my sleep became restful and I feel altogether like another person. I think as a remedy in female complaints as well, they are grand, curing the headaches and heavy, dragging feeling rapidly and easily—this I know from experience, and I am glad to recommend them." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. Do You Use Your Own Judgment?

Lion Coffee is a package coffee that reaches the homes of the people just as it left the factory where it is roasted and packed.

The beans are picked and carefully selected at the plantation, then shipped direct to our factories to be prepared for home use.

The most scrupulous care is taken with every process, the utmost cleanliness enforced in every operation. Men and machinery employed in making Lion Coffee ready for the market are chosen on account of their excellence and fitness for the work.

Some of the results of this scrupulous treatment of Lion Coffee are a delicious flavor, perfect purity and a uniform strength and quality.

All loose (or bulk) coffee is open to doubt—to put it mildly. The buyer does not know, the seller does not know where the bean came from, or how it was roasted, or where and when; how many hands handled it, what kind of hands they were, what contamination it received from dust, insects, dirt, etc.

Lion Coffee is pure, fresh and clean—that much is certain. Loose coffee—there isn't anything at all certain about it except that wise housewives will not buy it.

All grocers know the above to be true. There may be a very few left who will try to persuade you another way.

If they do, just ask them how they account for the increasing popularity of Lion Coffee in millions of homes for the best quarter of a century.

Fortunate Father and Son

I am as certain as I now live, says Mr. C. E. Bartholomew, Kalkaska, Mich., that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, of Rondout, N. Y., saved my son's life when I was a victim of that terrible disorder—Bright's disease. My son had a fever sore on his leg; he too used Favorite Remedy and is now well. All druggists $1.00; 6 bottles $5.00.

Years of suffering relieved in a night. Itching piles yield at once to the curative properties of Doan's Ointment. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.

THE OFFICERS INSTALLED.

A Social Meeting of Eastern Star in Masonic Temple.

MUSICAL PROGRAMME GIVEN.

During the Afternoon the Hadassah Chapter Social Club Met and Played Progressive Pedro at Five Tables.

Hadassah chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, installed the newly elected officers Friday evening in the Masonic temple, before one hundred persons who had accepted invitations to attend the installation and take part in the entertainment that followed. The chapter had invited the families of the members of the Masonic order. The officers were installed as follows: Miss Jennie Silk, worthy matron; Howard Garrigues, worthy patron; Miss Lulu Simpson, associate matron; Mrs. Ethel Lantz, secretary; Mrs. Pauline Schimke, treasurer; Mrs. Margaret Harrington, conductress; Miss Alice Black, associate conductress; Mrs. Ella Rudy, chaplain; Miss Clara Stover, warder; Howard Moseley, sentinel.

The subordinate officers were installed as follows, each being designated by one point of a star: Mrs. Lillie Moseley, Adah; Miss Jeannette Williams, Ruth; Mrs. Ray Carey, Esther; Miss Margaret Kline, Martha; Mrs. Hattie Lowery, Electa. The marshals are Mrs. A. Homard and Miss Bessie Moyer. Mrs. Mabel K. Reed is musician. All the officers will hold their positions one year.

After installation an entertainment was given, which included a recitation by Miss Jeannette Williams; a vocal solo by Miss Edith Scott, accompanied by Miss Williams, pianist, and Mrs. Bert Hankins, violinist; a recitation by Mrs. Sarah Howald, and a piano solo by Mrs. Mabel K. Reed. At the conclusion of the programme light refreshments were served.

During the afternoon the Hadassah Chapter social club met in the temple. Progressive euchre was played at five tables. The winners were Mrs. Howard Lucas, Mrs. P. P. Kirchhofer and Mrs. E. D. Shedd. Refreshments were served. Another meeting will be held in two weeks. The hostesses will be Mrs. Bert Hankins, Mrs. S. Higerd, Mrs. Margaret Harrington and Mrs. Alice Haerlin.

JOHNSON AT CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Nov. 11.—(By Associated Press.)—Mayor Johnson, of Cleveland, accompanied by several members-elect of the legislature from Cuyahoga county, was here today and called on Governor-elect Pattison and Mayor-elect Dempsey.

WENT TO CANTON.

Spectacular Initiation by Tribe of Ben Hur.

Eighteen members of Massillon court No. 24, Tribe of Ben Hur, went to Canton Friday evening to witness a spectacular initiation of a large class of candidates of the Tribe of Ben Hur. The work was done by the Canton court in the Grand opera house. Fifty candidates were present from Massillon, Canton, Alliance, Akron, Canal Dover and other places. Visitors were present from all of the large cities in northern Ohio.

Supreme Chief D. W. Gerard, of Crawfordsville, Ind., was present and delivered an address.

A Mutual Arrangement.

A certain poet made a good deal of money, but, being extravagant, he was always in debt. Then he wooed, won and wedded a young woman of great wealth. Thereafter times were better with him. At breakfast during his honeymoon the bride said to the poet tenderly, "Does the fact that I have money, dearest, make any difference to you?"

"To be sure it does, my love," the poet answered.

She drooped a little, perplexed, alarmed.

"What difference?" she asked.

"Why," said he, "it is such a comfort to know that if I should die you'd be provided for."

"And if I should die?" said the bride.

"Then," he returned, "I'd be provided for."

Recognized Himself.

"Now, children," said the teacher, "let us see what you remember about the animal kingdom and the domestic animals that belong to it. You have named all the domestic animals but one. Who can tell me what that one is? It has bristly hair, likes dirt and is fond of getting into the mud." Miss Fanny looked expectantly around the room. "Can't you think, Tommy?" she asked encouragingly.

"Yes'm," was the shamefaced reply. "It's me."—Christian Register.

RETURNS NOT ALL IN.

Candidates for Minor State Offices in Ohio Kept in Doubt.

Columbus, O., Nov. 11.—Complete returns on the state ticket, except for governor, are still unavailable, with the result that both the Republicans and the Democrats continue to claim the election of all minor state officers. Official returns received from 18 counties show that Harris, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, has an average lead in each county of 740 over Herrick for governor. If this ratio should be maintained in the remainder of the 88 counties in the state, which is thought doubtful, Harris would have a lead of 66,000 over Herrick in the state. This would insure the election not only of Harris for lieutenant governor but of the remainder of the Republican ticket, except governor, as Harris apparently received the lowest Republican vote next to Herrick.

Attorney General Ellis and State Treasurer McKinnon say that returns received by them from most of the counties indicate their election by a plurality of 15,000 or 20,000. The belief prevails that the result on lieutenant governor will be close. Lewis Houck of Mount Vernor, Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, declared his belief that he has been elected.

The Republicans and the Democrats claim the lower branch of the legislature by 62 to 59. On the face of the unofficial returns the senate is composed of 19 Democrats and 18 Republicans, but the Democrats claim it by 20 to 17. Both Republican and Democratic state chairmen refuse to make any detailed statement and it is intimated that both are anticipating contests in some of the close districts.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

New York, Nov. 11.—Dun's weekly review of trade says today: Each week brings a stronger business situation, seasonable weather having removed the last drawback, and pressure for shipment of goods is so great in many lines that the partial holiday put deliveries still further behind and caused much inconvenience. Reports of wholesome conditions are now practically unanimous and improve in collections is noted in many dispatches. Retail trade in wearing apparel and foodstuffs is the feature, while interest is beginning to be shown in holiday goods, of which very large stocks were accumulated in expectation of a record breaking season. Manufacturing lines constantly establish new high water marks of production, the present output of pig iron being at the rate of more than 2,000,000 tons monthly, and this is one of the best known business barometers. Footwear forwardings from Boston are within a few thousand cases of the record established in 1903, textile mills cannot make deliveries with desired promptness, and building operations are phenomenal. A few small strikes are in progress, but not sufficient to prevent the greatest industrial activity in the nation's history.

Beyond the fact that former conditions are accentuated, there is nothing new in the iron and steel industry. Demand for all forms of heavy steel is beyond the capacity of mills, the railroads showing an appetite for equipment and building operations absorbing structural shapes as rapidly as they can be turned out.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Great Roseben.

D. C. Johnson's Son of Ben Strome Season's Leading Sprinter.

The American turf may well be proud of Roseben, the fleet and sturdy son of Ben Strome and Rose Leaf, who has been retired for the season after breaking the record for six furlongs, with 140 pounds up, and winning eighteen out of twenty-five races, running second in five and third in two. One of the greatest thoroughbred sprinters that have ever been seen in the United States, where the greatest sprinters are developed, he may be acclaimed the champion of all as a five-year-old.

Turfmen of forty years' experience cannot remember a greater sprinter than Roseben.

Reliable, last season's star, could not compare with him, and Chuctanunda and Voter, previous champions at the same game, did nothing to entitle them to a ranking with the new record holder. Both were fair weight carriers of great speed, but Roseben is a marvel in both ways, and it is doubtful if his equal has been or ever will be seen.

There is none of the imperiousness of the average thoroughbred about Roseben despite his greatness.

In the paddock and on his way to the post he is a model of propriety, and his demeanor while waiting for a start is absolute perfection.

Starter Cassidy proclaims him the best natured and most intelligent post actor he has ever had to deal with. In that respect Roseben is like the great old race mare Imp.

"He breezed all the way," said Jockey Frank O'Neil, who rode Roseben in the record race at Belmont park, New York. "I never let him down from the start and was restraining him when we finished." O'Neil was surprised at the time hung up and felt rather disappointed that he had not gone on to equal or break the world's record. "He would surely have broken the record had there been anything to make him run," was his conclusion.

The world's record of 1:11 4-5 for six furlongs was made by Dick Welles as a three-year-old at Washington park, Chicago, in June, 1903. He carried only 109 pounds as compared to Roseben's 140, although the latter, of course, had the advantage of a year in age.

Dick Welles also holds the world's record for a mile over a circular track in 1:37 2-5. Roseben unfortunately is not a miler. His capacity is six furlongs, although he might possibly go seven in first class company. But Dick Welles in his palmiest days could hardly have carried ten pounds over the scale and run as fast as Roseben does nearly once a week.

Roseben will not be seen at the races again this season. D. C. Johnson, his owner, believes he has done all that can reasonably be asked of any horse for one year, and he concedes Mr. Voeburgh's inability to keep weight off him in handicaps. He has earned the penalty of greatness, but will not be asked to carry any greater weight imposts than he has already shouldered. Should a condition race be placed on any programme suitable for the horse he may be brought out for it. Roseben is a gelding and will, therefore, be kept at racing for as many years as he holds his form.

Beldame, one of the greatest race mares ever seen on the American turf, has finally been sent into retirement. She was shipped recently to August Belmont's nursery stud in Kentucky. She will be mated with Meddler next spring. In her racing career Beldame won nearly $100,000, and her victories include some of the most important races on the Jockey club tracks. Last season as a three-year-old she was practically invincible, losing only two races out of thirteen. Her greatest honor this year was the winning of the Suburban handicap.

Cornell's Eleven.

Glenn Warner, at Cornell, has a lot of men to draw from for his eleven. Many are of last year's team, but some of the best are those who enter college this fall. The veterans were light men, but the "prep" school players have the weight, and Warner will be able to place on the gridiron a formidable eleven for the championship games.

Eddie Bald, Auto Racer.

Former Cycling Champion Eddie Bald, who as an auto racer scored an almost unbroken string of victories in hill climbs and track races this year, says that he will surely be in the racing game next season with a machine in which he can "win sitting up and back pedaling."

Advancer Retired.

Advancer, 2:11¼, winner of two big stakes on the great western circuit and whose winnings have been tied up pending investigation, has been retired for the season.

Grattan Bells, 2:12 1-2.

Grattan Bells, 2:13¼, has been sold to William J. McFarland of Philadelphia and goes to Ed Benyon.

NO ONE A DRUDGE.

All Were Willing to Share in the Routine of Housework.

We often recall with pleasure the memory of a mother we once knew. She was the wonder of her friends, and time has only increased our admiration of her. When we first met this woman she was the mother of six children, and in the course of time four more were added to the group. With ten children to feed, clothe and educate on an income that admitted of outside help only on rare occasions one might naturally expect to see a thin, irritable and overworked woman. On the contrary, she was wholesome and rosy cheeked, invariably cheerful, happy and ready to enter into any practicable scheme that promised diversion for her friends or her family.

With her the end of life was the satisfaction of those about her. Furniture, house, meals, everything was contrived for the comfort of home life. Did the father wish to bring home an acquaintance or a child wish a companion to stay to dinner, each knew his wishes would be considered. Company meant simply another plate, knife and fork and sitting a little closer. Was a house desired for a church sociable or a committee meeting Mrs. S.'s house was always available, and on short notice. Nor was her hospitality accepted merely as a last resort, but because it was known that here a hearty and sincere welcome would be extended to each and all, irrespective of age or calling.

To be sure, the family name carried prestige, which did much to atone for well worn, even shabby furnishings; but, unaccompanied by intrinsic worth of some kind, ancestry is of little worth.

Good health and a cheerful disposition were the inheritances of each child of the family, and the happy, contented babies grew up to look out for themselves and each other. No one was a drudge. All were willing to share in the routine of housework, and friction was reduced to the minimum. One greater advantage this family possessed—they did not live in a city or large town, but in a village, on a small plot of land whose resources were a never failing storehouse for table supplies, and this brings us to the central thought of our chat.

Living in a city or large town with no resource for supplies, as a berry patch, garden, fruit tree or hennery, one can scarcely realize with what a small allowance of money a family in the country may be fed. Eliminate the friction caused by trying to make one dollar do the work of five in feeding a family, while all the time feeling that even that dollar ought to be spent for shoes and stockings instead of food, and life for many a woman would take on a brighter aspect. The tension on nerves and health would be withdrawn and happiness begin to reign at once. Let a woman with a family of children live for one season in the real country, where there are pasturage for a cow, fuel for the gathering and fruit of all kinds for the picking, and she will exclaim again and again, "Why do not more people come to the country to live?"—Janet M. Hill in Boston Cooking School Magazine.

The Correct Bride's Cake.

The London Sun is credited with the following: "The correct bride's cake from now on will be a simple loaf, spiced and fruited, iced and wreathed in natural orange blossoms, and only large enough to exactly supply the bridal party. Of course, the ring, spoon and thimble will be baked into the loaf, and the center of the table will be still occupied by the gorgeous plaster and nougat edifice, meant for ornamentation, not for food. Then for guests at the reception the confiseur sends tiny bridal loaves. Every one is a miniature cake in itself, appropriately spiced, cut square, in a circle or heart form, iced, wreathed with artificial orange blossoms and bearing in high sugar relief the couple's initials in the center. Every one of these toy cakes is to fit, at a costly wedding, in a box of watered white silk, having a hinged top and fastened with white wax, stamped with the bride's seal."

A Convenient Device.

A puppy pen has proved a great comfort to me in the rearing of our fox terrier. This pen consists of a light galvanized iron tray with a rim turned up all around two or two and one-half inches, and a light frame made of two inch laths, either rough or smooth, nailed to a corner cleat, as shown in the elevation and section. The frame should be a trifle larger than the outside rim of the tray, so as to slip over it easily. With a little box half full of excelsior for the puppy to sleep in the outfit is complete. It can be moved to any part of the house, inside or out. The pen can be lifted off and the tray washed out with the hose and dried in the sun. At times we put the puppy on the grass without the tray, but the pen keeps him from getting away, says a Good Housekeeping correspondent.

St. Petersburg Alarmed by Rumors of Approaching Massacre of Jews.

BLACK HUNDRED MAKE THREATS

Count Witte's Cabinet, Composed Entirely of Bureaucrats, Completed. Constitutional Democrats Say It Will Not Survive Long.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 11.—Except in the kingdom of Poland, where the rapidly growing nationalist movement and the state of tension among the proletariat will soon bring the declaration of a state of war, Russia seems for the time being at least to be generally tranquil. Telegrams from interior points report the restoration of order in nearly all cities and towns, but in many cities, notably St. Petersburg and Moscow, the better classes of the population are greatly disturbed owing to the rumors of approaching attacks by the "Black Hundred," composed of the most ignorant types of the populace, which, according to these rumors, are scheduled to take place in St. Petersburg tonight and in Moscow tomorrow.

The apprehension in St. Petersburg has become so great that the prefect of police who succeeded General Trepoff in command of the city police has instructed his subordinates to take the fullest measures to crush any disorder in its incipiency, so as to disabuse the minds of the "loyalists" of the idea that the police would remain inactive. In such an emergency the strong hand of General Trepoff is being missed, even by the factions which most execrated him.

Count Witte's cabinet may now be regarded as constituted. Count Lamsdoff, minister of foreign affairs, and M. Manukhin, minister of justice, will retain their posts, leaving only the posts of minister of the interior and minister of education to be filled. Dmitri Shipoff of Moscow, who was president of the first zemstvo congress, has definitely declined to accept any position in the cabinet.

It is announced that martial law will be declared throughout Poland.

The universities and high schools throughout Russia have been closed indefinitely by order of the minister of the interior.

Count Witte's ministry as thus far announced is a practical acknowledgment that he has abandoned hope of securing the active cooperation of the Constitutional Democrats or other parties of the center. Four of the ministers chosen, namely, Ivan Shipoff, finance minister; M. Kutler, minister of agriculture; M. Timirxazeff, minister of commerce, and M. Filossoff, controller of the empire, were assistants of Count Witte when he was minister of finance. The only minister who is not a bureaucrat is M. Nemechaieff, who succeeds Prince Hilkoff as minister of communication.

The Constitutional Democrats consider that they have won a great victory in preventing any leaders of the constitutional group from accepting office, saying that Count Witte's ministry is thus stamped as purely temporary and must give way immediately on the convening of the national assembly to a cabinet in full sympathy with the parliamentary majority. The count is greatly disappointed at the refusal of the constitutionalists to support him since it forces him to fight on two fronts, with the reactionaries on his right and the Social Democrats and Revolutionaries clamoring for a republic on his left.

Emperor's Treasure in Danger.

Count Witte has invited Count John Tolstoi, who resigned the position of head of the academy of fine arts owing to General Trepoff's repressive policy, to take the portfolio of education. Count John is no relation of Count Leo Tolstoi.

During the rioting at Cronstadt the government treasury there, which was surrounded by a deep moat filled with water, was only saved from the mob of mutineers and rowdies by the removal of the bridges.

Warsaw, Nov. 11.—Representatives of all political parties in Poland at a meeting held in the palace decided to send 20 leading citizens to St. Petersburg to request the emperor to grant Russian Poland full autonomy and its own parliament. The deputation will leave today.

The general strike continues. All the shops are closed except those of the apothecaries, and also several bakeries, which the strikers ordered to be opened so as to prevent the starvation of the people.

Moscow, Nov. 11.—Alarming rumors are in circulation that anti-Jewish outbreaks will occur simultaneously here and at St. Petersburg tomorrow. Foreigners and Jews have received threatening letters and have asked the authorities for protection, but thus far no step has been taken toward granting the request.

100 Jap Fishermen Lost.

Tokio, Nov. 11.—Over 100 fishermen are reported missing off the Prefecture of Kagosh, where a severe storm recently took place.

Chicago to Have New Charter.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Mayor Dunne has issued a call for a convention to frame a new charter for the city.

CAN'T SEE IT THAT WAY.

There Is No Law Pensioning Stay-at-Homes of 1861-63.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Many inquiries are received at the pension bureau asking if a law has been enacted reimbursing those who paid money to be exempt from the draft in 1863-64, but the pension officials point out that there is no warrant for the report. Deputy Commissioner of Pensions Davenport said:

"The pension bureau has no knowledge of a proposed law of this kind and it is a little strange that any one would expect the government to come to the relief of these stay-at-homes. In 1863 it became necessary in some states to resort to draft to fill town quotas. It seems that at that time any one could purchase exemption for a fixed price. In many towns that price was $300. It was simply a barter and trade arrangement between the man liable to be drafted and the town. The man purchased exemption upon paying his $300. This money was used by the town to hire a substitute to serve in the place of the man who purchased his right to stay at home. The question is, 'Did the man receive the full equivalent for his money?' It seems that he did, as at that time the regular price for a substitute was something like $500. The town was compelled to add $200 to the $300 it had received from the exempted man to purchase his substitute.

"Somebody must be laboring under the impression that these drafted men should be reimbursed for this $300. It does not look that way to an outsider."

INDICTMENTS READY.

Law Closing in Upon Perpetrators of Election Frauds.

New York, Nov. 11.—Ten indictments for violations of the election law and two for assaults committed at the polls at the election last Tuesday have been drawn up by the grand jury.

It was said last night that Attorney General Mayer and State Superintendent of Elections Morgan had instituted a searching investigation of the alleged election frauds, which would be continued until the legislature meets.

Two ballot boxes have been found in a barber shop at 156 Third avenue, one of them full of half soiled and torn ballots and the other empty. This barber shop was the polling place of the first election district of the eighteenth assembly district, which is the district of which Charles F. Murphy, head of Tammany Hall, is the leader. Hearst watchers found the two boxes. Deputies of State Superintendent of Elections Morgan took possession of the boxes.

President John R. Voorhis of the board of elections said that the grand jury required him to deliver to them the registry book of the fifth election district of the twenty-sixth assembly district. The book was given to the jury.

QUEER COIN DESTROYED.

Government Disposes of Accumulated Counterfeiting Apparatus.

Washington, Nov. 11.—Counterfeit bank notes in the sum of $255,000; "queer" coins in the amount of $49,000, and $50,000 worth of dies, plates, rolls, type, hubs, stamps, collars, milling machines and other machinery and appliances for making counterfeit money have been destroyed by order of the treasury department.

The notes were burned in the special furnaces for that purpose at the treasury department and the coin and appliances were destroyed at a local foundry. According to the secret service division officer who was in charge of the destruction, the $49,000 of "queer" coin represents the largest amount of counterfeit coin ever destroyed by the government at one time.

HAILED CONQUERING HERO.

Jerome Welcomed Home by Brass Band and Fireworks.

Lakeville, Conn., Nov. 11.—William Travers Jerome, who was reelected district attorney of New York county Tuesday, arrived in town last night and will seek a short rest at his home here. Citizens of the town turned out almost 1,000 strong and greeted him with a brass band and fireworks. He was escorted to his home by a big crowd, many of whom carried torches.

When Mr. Jerome reached his house he made a short speech. In referring to the New York election he said he had no doubt that the people would prove themselves true to real principles and that they would respond cheerfully when the call came to overthrow boss rule.

Aged Woman Frightened to Death.

Washington, N. J., Nov. 11.—Mrs. George Bowne, 60 years old, was frightened to death in a struggle with a burglar in her home here. She went to the dining room to investigate a noise she had heard and found a man taking her silver from a sideboard. She seized the man, who began to beat her with his fists. Mrs. Bowne's cries aroused her daughter, who came to her aid, but both women were beaten off. Mrs. Bowne fell to the floor and the burglar escaped. Mrs. Bowne was dead when lifted from the floor.

HONEST BALLOT WILL PREVAIL

People Evidently Want Municipal Ownership, Says Carnegie, and They Should Have It—England and Scotland Lead in This Respect.

New York, Nov. 11.—Andrew Carnegie, upon disembarking from the steamer Baltic, talked on American politics. Of the New York election Mr. Carnegie said:

"Of all things we should have an honest count. What we want is an honest election and a pure ballot. I do not think that any attempt to defraud the people out of a fair count could be continuously successful or that it would ever endanger this republic, for the voice of the people will make itself heard.

ANDREW CARNEGIE FISHING AT SKIBO

"I do not believe in the Socialist idea of municipal ownership, but municipal ownership is a certainty, sure as I am alive. Scotland and England are ahead of us in ownership of public property. All Great Britain's water, trams and sewage works are under public ownership. The line seems clear to me. The increase in value made by an increasing population should belong to the people, but whether a city could offer it as a lease for a time is another affair. The leases given should be for as short a time as possible. The shorter the better. The ownership should always remain with the city. The people seemingly want municipal ownership and they should get it.

Men Careless of Good Names.

"The insurance scandals" said Mr. Carnegie, "have made a profound impression throughout Europe. The root of the trouble is that there are so many men in America who are so good natured that they lend their names to financial institutions and assume duties which they have not time to perform. Their respectable names are used as decoy ducks by the real managers of these institutions over which they have no control. What we need to control such evils is men in office who are not money grabbers, who are retired from business and who will conduct public offices as they would their own business.

"The impression is caused by the fact that business men will not protect their names as they protect their dollars. Their business and moral standing has been lowered in their estimation. It has to this extent caused wonder that men of finance have allowed their names to be used as a blind. I have been asked time and again to become a director of some of the insurance companies, but I replied that if the institution is a good one I will trust my dollars with it, but not my name. That is sacred."

MUST HAVE STATE LICENSE.

Attorney General's Department Interprets New Automobile Law.

Harrisburg, Nov. 11.—The attorney general's department has furnished the state highway department with an official opinion that the automobile law passed by the last legislature repeals all former acts and stands as the only law on this subject.

The deputy attorney general holds that the act of 1905 applies to motor bicycles as well as to automobiles and that no motor vehicle of any sort can be operated in Pennsylvania after Jan. 1, 1906, when the new law becomes operative, except by a person who has secured a license from the state highway department.

Borough Yields to Water Company.

Girardville, Pa., Nov. 11.—The town council decided last night to pay the $4,000 due the Girard Estate Water company, which shut off the water supply Nov. 1 to enforce payment of the debt. The situation has become so serious that the fire insurance companies were preparing to cancel their policies and saving funds and building and loan associations to foreclose mortgages. The water supply will be turned on today.

ACCUSED OF NINE MURDERS.

Dr. Haugh of Dayton, O., Alleged to Be Monster of Cruelty.

Dayton, O., Nov. 11.—Dr. Walter Kline, coroner of Montgomery county, believes that Dr. O. C. Haugh is the murderer of at least nine people. Haugh is in jail here charged with the murder of his father, mother and brother several days ago. They were found burned to death last Sunday in the ruins of their home which was destroyed by fire.

Dr. Kline said: "I know enough to assert that Dr. Haugh is one of the greatest criminals of the age."

Dr. Haugh was arrested after the discovery of the charred bodies of his father, mother and brother in the ruins of their home, eight miles north of this city. Developments have followed fast since the visit here of Dr. S. L. Hermann of Lima, O., who charges Haugh with the murder of his sister at their home, 1208 Broadway, Lorain, O., on April 9, 1904. Dr. Hermann said his sister told him when dying that Haugh was the cause of her death, he having injected muriatic acid mixed with cocaine into her spine, causing paralysis.

Search is being made for Mrs. Delia Patterson, once of Toledo, but who is now said to live in Ludington, Mich. It is asserted that she was one of Haugh's wives. His name is also connected with the mysterious death of a woman in Milwaukee.

LET US GIVE THANKS.

Governor of Pennsylvania Issues Customary Proclamation.

Harrisburg, Nov. 11.—Governor Pennypacker has issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation:

"In pursuance of a usage established in the days of the fathers and long observed to the moral and spiritual elevation of the people, I, Samuel Whitaker Pennypacker, governor of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby set apart Thursday, Nov. 30, as a day to render thanks unto the Lord for the great benefits we have received at His hands, and to set forth His praise. He hath blessed our heritage; He hath preserved for our use the kindly fruits of the earth; His eyes have considered the poor; it hath pleased Him to give peace and concord to all nations; He hath not taken vengeance of our sins; He hath exalted the humble and the meek; He hath enabled us to amend our lives.

"Let us then come together in our homes, churches and places of worship and offer up prayers for the continuance of His mercies; let us both by our lives and doctrine set forth His glory and let us further remember the wants of the desolate, the needy and the oppressed."

And Afterwards Find Themselves in Serious Predicament.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Through the confessions of nine boys under 19 years old, four of whom are sons of professors, suspicion that Cornell students were the perpetrators of the greased street rails prank, which endangered a carload of passengers last Thursday night, has been removed. The boys stated that they did not realize the seriousness of their action and had no malicious intentions.

It is believed by the street railway management that the boys were innocent of any intention of committing crime, yet the matter will have to take its natural course through the courts. The boys will be arraigned before City Recorder Swetland this morning and will probably be held to await the action of the grand jury. The boys are Joseph Farley, Harold Bennett, Edwin Natzell, Edward M. Carman, Frank M. Hunn, Theodore Hunt, Harry Van Buren, Mark Dennis and Norwin Smith.

HIRED AS PAINTER.

Thus Gained Opportunity to Steal $100,000 Worth of Gems.

New York, Nov. 11.—Confession to the robbery of $100,000 worth of gems from fashionable New York homes in the last two years has been admitted by Harold Prescott, a painter. His profit on pawning the jewelry, Prescott said, was but little over $7,000. The painter was arrested in connection with a recent small robbery and the police were ignorant of the value of their arrest until at his arraignment. Prescott said his thefts could not be concealed much longer and confessed. Immediate search was made of the pawnshops he named and the police say they have recovered $20,000 worth of the stolen gems already.

Prescott obtained entrance to the houses he robbed by securing employment in them as a painter. Prescott was later sentenced to five years in Singsing.

Defunct Bank to Pay 50 Per Cent.

Lorain, O., Nov. 11.—It has been announced that a dividend of 50 per cent would be paid creditors of the defunct Citizens Savings bank of this city which failed March 31. The probate court has ordered the payment of the dividend and it is expected that all the claims against the bank will be paid in 18 months.

Pennypacker Writes Governors.

Harrisburg, Nov. 11.—Governor Pennypacker has sent a personal letter to the governor of every state in the United States urging them to appoint delegates to the congress to be held at Washington, D. C., Feb. 16, 1906, to consider uniform laws upon divorce throughout the nation.

TOO THIN FOR LOUIS

Was Ice Upon Which Reporters Asked the Admiral Prince to Skate.

REFUSES TO DISCUSS RUSSIA

Because Czar Is His Brother-in-Law and Family Quarrel Might Result. Royal Visitor Speaks Frankly on Other Subjects.

New York, Nov. 11.—Rear Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg has captured New York heart and soul. The absolute democracy and unassuming cordiality with which the admiral prince receives his visitors of high and low degree has made friends for him every minute of his visit here. Had King Edward planned a great diplomatic stroke in sending his armored cruiser squadron to American waters he could not have entrusted the mission to a more competent diplomatist than Prince Louis.

Perhaps the most interesting incident of the second day of his visit to New York was his informal reception of a delegation of New York reporters in his cabin. For the second time his highness talked to them with the utmost frankness, answered some of their most searching questions and foiled others.

It is not a royally luxurious room, this cabin of the admiral prince. It is comfortable and homelike. Pictures of his family and friends with some interesting prints of ships light up the walls.

Admires American Women.

"Yes," remarked the prince, "I am a busy man these days. You people have really been most kind to me. In fact, I receive many, many more invitations than I can possibly accept. Twenty-four hours is not nearly a long enough day for me to accept all of the many courtesies offered me.

"Not only have I many engagements but my correspondence has doubled. One of your citizens writes to me that he can build a ship which will cross the ocean in three days. Think of it. Some of my letters are from ladies."

"What do they say?" expectantly asked one of his visitors.

"You are not asking me to betray a lady's confidence," the prince exclaimed with a twinkle in his eye.

Then for 10 minutes the prince was the target for the usual volley of questions with which every distinguished visitor in New York is met. Did he admire the American women?

Indeed he did. The gallant Britisher thought they could "not be improved upon."

What did he think of Mr. Jerome, whom he met at the dinner last night? Again Prince Louis was ready with the remark that it was easy to see why such a man succeeded.

Reporter Puts Impudent Query.

Evidently thinking to ask the prince a question which would evoke an answer out of the ordinary, one of the reporters made bold to ask:

"What does your highness think of the conditions in Russia?"

For a moment there was a pause, and then the prince replied: "I am a brother-in-law of Emperor Nicholas and I am also a rear admiral in the British navy. You are therefore getting on thin ice, in fact, on no ice at all, and I think I shall not attempt to skate."

"Well, then, what does your highness think of New York?" said the reporter. "What has impressed you most?"

"The effect of a war upon New York," began the prince slowly, "is what has impressed me most. In less time than it takes my cook to fry an omelet the combined fleets in the river here could reduce New York to atoms. New York needs peace. War would prove disastrous to this city."

VERDICT DUE TODAY.

Stuart Pierson's Death Will Be Laid at Door of the D. K. E.

Mount Vernon, O., Nov. 11.—The formal verdict of Coroner Scarborough in the death of Stuart Pierson will be made public today. As announced early in the week, the coroner will find that Pierson came to his death while lying bound upon the railway tracks during an initiation of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

The coroner declines to state in advance whether any members of the society or others will be implicated. The transcript of the evidence will be finished today and in all probability will at once be laid before the grand jury by Prosecutor Stilla H.

Football Player Dies of Injuries.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 11.—Helman G. Norgaard, a member of a high school football team, is dead of abscess of the brain, brought on by injuries received in a game two weeks ago.

Arrested for Stealing Furs.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 11.—Dr. Arnold V. Peterson, a dentist of New York, is under arrest here charged with stealing $2,000 worth of furs from Brown's fur store.

President's Plans Indorsed.

Washington, Nov. 11.—The American Hardware Manufacturers' association have indorsed President Roosevelt's plan for railroad rate legislation.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

WAITED FOR DEATH.

Thrilling Experience of a Chicago Man.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Only in Poe or De Maupassant are found the thrills which Daniel Delaney experienced this morning when he fell into the concrete "well" at the State street bascule bridge, into which a fifteen-ton counter weight settles when the bridge is lowered.

It was 5 o'clock and Delaney, a shipping clerk, was on his way to work. When he reached the bridge he found it "up." He stepped close to the abutment to see if the boat was coming and, slipping, fell into the well.

There are six feet of water at the bottom, into which the great weight settles, fitting closely to the concrete. Delaney was not injured by the fall, and he knew that the great weight would be down and crush the life out of him as soon as the boat passed. He cried for help, but there was no one to hear and he was far down below the street level.

Looking upward he could see the shadow of the fifteen ton weight.

"I knew that a whistle meant death, for it is the signal to lower," he said.

There was a procession of boats, and for forty minutes Delaney waited to be crushed. Then some impatient man approached the abutment like Delaney and heard his exhausted cries. He notified a policeman and Delaney was discovered just as the last boat shot past. A rope was thrown to him and he was dragged out in a collapsed state.

Mrs. Michael Koehler and daughter, Miss Barbara Koehler, left on Saturday to visit friends in Barberton and Akron.

The George Williamson farm, containing one hundred and sixty-nine acres, was sold at executor's sale on Friday to William Findley, of Newman. The consideration was $9,282.

An effort is being made at Canal Fulton to form a company to drill for oil and gas. If sufficient stock can be sold at $5 per share to raise $5 000, three thousand acres of land will be leased and a well put down.

Miss Gwendolin Evans and Mr. Lawrence Larkin, of this city, were quietly married Thursday evening at the rectory of St. Joseph's church, by the Rev. F. B. Doherty. Mr. Larkin is a well known conductor in the Columbia yards.

A blaze from a defective gasoline stove set fire to a few articles in the apartments occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Gaines, at the corner of Erie and Oak streets, Saturday morning. An alarm was sent in to the central engine house but the blaze was extinguished before the arrival of the firemen. The loss is small.

Miss Leasy Tasker entertained fifteen friends Thursday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Tasker, 104 Superior street, the occasion being Miss Tasker's fifteenth birthday. She received many presents. Among those present was Miss Mary Baatz, of Warwick. Refreshments were served.

Twenty members of the Endeavor Society of the Christian church were driven to North Lawrence in a four-horse tallyho Friday evening and attended a rally of the Christian Endeavorers of the county, which was held in the United Brethren church. After the rally the Massillon members were entertained at supper by Miss Ada Buttermore.

In an effort to save her little son, who had run ahead of her and got on the railroad track at Leetonia, Mrs. James Gaughan, of that place, was struck by a passenger train Thursday and instantly killed. The little boy was also very seriously injured and may die. The accident occurred near the depot and in the presence of a number of people.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Arnold entertained sixteen friends at their home in Vanderbilt avenue Thursday evening with a musicale. Several selections were sung by A. W. Barlow and Mr. Barlow and Mrs. James Edwards sang a duet. Other musical selections were rendered, including a duet by Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ayers. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

William Yost, J. W. McClymonds, H. H. Everhard, C. L. McLain, S. M. Knapp, Peter Scharles, Jacob Lawrence and Jacob Meyers went to Wellsville Friday to attend the funeral of the late General J. W. Reilly, who was colonel of the One Hundred and Fourth regiment, O. V. I., during the civil war, to which regiment the Massillon veterans belonged.

The Blue Bell euchre club, of sixteen members, surprised Edward Wagner, at his home in Edna street, Friday evening, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Mr. Wagner has often boasted that he could not be surprised, but this one was genuine. Progressive euchre was played. The prizes were won by Mrs. C. F. Wentzinger, William Witmer, Andrew Paul and Mrs. J. U. Douglass. An elaborate supper was served after the game.

The Tuscarawas Traction Company will never again run cars between New Philadelphia and Uhrichsville at the old rate of ten cents. The company will fight it out in the courts. A final decision will not be reached inside of two years in case the question of declaring the franchise forfeited is taken up, and by that time the company will have a line from the county seat to Dennison over private right of way." The statement was made to the Chronicle today by a representative of the traction company who is advised as to the company's plans. The speaker stated that when it comes to a matter of a new line over private right of way its southern terminus will be Dennison instead of Uhrichsville.—Uhrichsville Chronicle.

One of the largest and most brilliant functions of the present social season was a dinner dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Day and Miss Hunt Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt, 199 East Main street. The guests numbered sixty-four. Dinner was served at sixteen tables scattered through the drawing room, reception hall and library. The decorations were carnations and chrysanthemums. An orchestra played in the upper hallway during the dinner and when the rooms were cleared for dancing was stationed in the dining room opening off the reception hall. Among those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. George Clark, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Day, Robert K. Fast, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Esselbourne, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Lynch, Mrs. Percy L. McLain and John Scott, of Canton; Mrs. Julia Wells, of Topeka, Kan., and Courtney Burton, of Cleveland.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS

Do Not Endanger Your Life and Health When a Cure is so Easy.

Why will people continue to suffer the agonies of kidney complaint, backache, urinary disorders, lameness and stiffness in the back, why allow themselves to become chronic invalids, when a certain cure is offered them? Doan's Kidney Pills is the remedy to use because it gives the kidneys the help they need to perform their work. That Doan's Kidney Pills cure, and cure permanently, is proved in a citizen's statement. If you have any, even one, of the numerous symptoms of kidney complaint cure yourself before diabetes, dropsy or Brights disease sets in. Read this Massillon testimony.

Mrs. B. C. White, wife of B. C. White, machinist at the Bridge Works, and living at 36 Danner street, Massillon, says: "I told residents of this city through our local papers in the month of May, 1900, that I had been relieved of pain and lameness in my back by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Baltzly's drug store. I can add, today, that during the four years or more which have elapsed that never once has this remedy failed to bring prompt and effective relief whenever I feel the least touch of backache coming on. Other members of my family have used Doan's Kidney Pills with the same satisfactory results. In cases of backache and other troubles arising from the kidneys there is no better remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Public Sale.

The undersigned will sell at public sale on the Rev. J. H. Steele farm, or better known as the Thomas Chapman farm, one mile west of Navarre, one and one-half miles east of Cross Roads church, on Tuesday, November 21, the following: Four head horses, seven head young cattle, fifteen shoats, all kinds of farm implements, consisting of mower, grain drill, hay ladders, etc.; also buggy, harness, hay by the ton, oats and corn by the bushel, and other articles too numerous to mention. Sale to commence at 12 o'clock.

MARION BOUGHMAN.

IN THE MARKETS.

The New Nuts Arrive—Almonds from Sicily.

Members of the almond family completed their long journey from Sicily to Massillon this week. They report a pleasant voyage but an annoying detention by the importers in New York. Friends were on the lookout for them here and many have already left the markets. They cost 20 cents per pound.

Cousins of the almonds, the California walnuts, hurried across the continent last week and are now ready to take their places on the dinner table along with the raisins, figs and oranges. They also retail at 30 cents a pound.

Twenty cent prices seem to prevail in the markets just now. Our old friends, the carrot and turnip, cost 20 cents a peck. They are not so very plentiful this year but they are good to cook at and better to eat. Mashed turnips served with butter, pepper and salt, make a dish fit for a king, while a long orange carrot, properly disposed of in soup, is a joy forever.

Great Game By the Tigers

Toledo Swamped by Monster Score of 40-0.

Some Great Team Work.

The Tigers Played As They Never Played Before--Moran, Riley, Nesser and Hayden Literally Sweeping the Visitors Off of Their Feet--Botoner Wrenched His Knee and May Be Kept Out of the Game for Weeks--Toledo Lost Lots of Money Betting on Less Than 18-0 Score and Betting That They Would Score--Hundreds of Dollars Changed Hands--Canton Players Saw the Game--They Were Dumbfounded.

Forty to nothing.

The Tigers simply walloped those aspiring Toledo players to a finish Thursday afternoon, plowing through the line and running ends in true championship form, and with such fierceness as to take almost all of the life out of the visiting team early in the game.

It was a great game. There were sensational features which have been seen at no other game played in Massillon, and there were spurts of defense by the visitors which simply compelled the Tigers to play to their limit to advance the ball. At no time did the visitors quit, and aside from two touchdowns made by Moran on straight line plunges and then runs of forty and sixty yards, the Toledo team forced the locals to go fast all of the time to score.

For just a short time after the first touchdown had been made, Toledo succeeded in stopping up the fierce playing of the Tigers, but another touchdown was registered in this half and the score stood 11-0 when the whistle blew for the first half.

The game began with Moran, Riley, Nesser and Hayden back of the line. McChesney took Merriam's position at right end and the game began with the other regulars in their positions. Captain Wittmann won the toss and Toledo kicked to Massillon. The ball was returned twenty yards and then the first indication of the real strength of the Tigres was given. Straight line bucks, interspersed with end runs, brought the ball to Toledo's twenty yard line. Riley's run around right end was one of the spectacular features of the game, and after brushing off several players he carried the ball over the line near the northeast corner. Schrontz kicked goal. Score, 6-0.

Toledo chose to receive the kick and brought the ball back twenty yards, catching McChesney's high kickoff on their goal line. A few line bucks showed the visitors that they could do nothing with the line of the Tigers and they punted, "Mother" Kruse driving the ball thirty-five yards and Riley bringing it back ten. It was at this point that the Toledo team showed a burst of defensive playing which surprised the locals, and after working hard Toledo secured the ball on their own five yard line. Two line bucks brought them three yards and they punted back to Hayden and Riley.

It was a slow and steady march to the goal line then and McFarland was finally pushed over for the second touchdown. Goal was missed and the score stood 11-0 at the end of the first half, time being called a short time later.

Several defects were noticed during the first half and the players were informed of these during the intermission. The result was wonderful, for Massillon almost tripled their score in the second half, scoring 29 points while the visitors never had a look in at the Tiger's goal line.

Jack Nesser played a brilliant game in the first half, carrying the ball in grand shape and plowing through interference, leaped over falling players, twisting and squirming in a manner which was truly thrilling.

He was ably assisted by Moran and Riley and J. Hayden. In fact these players pulled, dragged and fought like demons against the visitors in the best of foot ball style, with the result that the fans almost went crazy over some of the plays.

It was in the second half that Moran, the little rebel from Tennessee, performed a feat which has not been duplicated on a Massillon field since the year when "Whalebone Mully" Miller used to plow through the line, shake off tacklers and register a touchdown. It was due largely to the great work of Shiring, McFarland and Lang that Moran was enabled to do what he did. Twice in this half his signal for a straight buck was called, and twice did the linemen open up such holes that Moran was able to plow through, shake off a tackler in each instance, and score a touchdown on forty and sixty yard runs. This set the fans wild and Moran won a place in the hearts of the spectators.

Lang deserves great credit for the able manner in which he took hold of the Tiger plays without having had more than a day's practice. He did not confuse a single signal and made large holes for his backs to run through.

Canton's foot ball players were scattered about at various places on the side lines. Canton's coach and several players had said previous that the Tigers "might" run the score up to eighteen or twenty to nothing, and when the locals began to plow through the line, run ends and pull off other sensational stunts never before dreamed of by the visitors, the visiting Canton delegation took on a sickly green smile, which can better be imagined than described. As a matter of fact the Cantonians looked decidedly blue after the game.

The Tigers showed great improvement over former games, and if this march of progress can be continued Canton, the Indians, nor no other team in the country can stop them. The fans were delighted with the work of the players and will now look forward with hopes of a victory over the Indians at Cleveland next Wednesday. The lineup and summary follow:
